Writing (answer sheet): Write 100 – 120 words.

"Actions speak louder than words." This proverb is very interesting. It tells us about importance of your or other people's actions in our lives.

This phrase can explain ^{for} children, teenagers and adults that actions are usually more important than words.

Actually, there are a lot of proverb in literature of every country. And every proverb teaches us something shows us the rules of our lives.

This proverb can help you, when you don't understand your relationship with some people. They can say that you are a good person, but they can laugh at you when you don't hear them.

Well, in my opinion this proverb can help many people to make a choose a right way or a right person in life, so it is very important
